

Help Your Clients Plan for Their Loved Ones' Futures Today.

The state of Texas has tax-advantaged IRC Sec. 529 and 529A plans designed to help you provide the right advice at the right time to the right client. Whether you serve clients in Texas who want to save for a loved one's future education or for a loved one with a disability without jeopardizing critical means-tested federal and state benefits, the Texas plans can help.

For 2022, individuals can gift up to $16,000 annually ($32,000 for married couples) per beneficiary, or if certain requirements are met, up to $80,000 over a five-year period ($160,000 for married couples) per beneficiary, without triggering gift tax. These gift tax exclusions are limited to the applicable annual contribution limit for 529A plans. Completed gifts are generally excluded from the donor's estate, thereby reducing potential estate tax obligations.
